

CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS

PAŠKO BILIĆ, MA in Sociology and History (University of Zagreb), is employed at the Institute for International Relations, Zagreb (Department for Culture and Communication) as a research assistant. He is a doctoral student (Interuniversity Doctoral course in Sociology at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Zagreb), specializing in the media and media policies.

E-mail: pasko@irmo.hr

SEZGIN BOYNIK is sociologist based in Helsinki. He is currently Phd researcher in Jyväskylä University Cultural Policy department (SOVAKO) where he is working on the topic of “Cultural Politics of ‘Black Wave’ in Yugoslavia from 1963 to 1972”. Previously he was working as lecturer at the Prishtina University Turkology department. He has published articles and monographs on Situationist International, ideologies of contemporary art, punk movement and on nationalism.

E-mail: sezgin\_boynik@hotmail.com

MAJA BREZNIK, researcher at the Faculty for Social Sciences (University of Ljubljana), docent of sociology of culture. Author and co-author of the following books: Artisanry and Erudition. The Topography of Renaissance Theatre (Koper/Capodistria, Annales, 2003), Cultural Revisionism (Ljubljana, Peace Institute, 2004), The Book culture (Ljubljana, UMco, 2005), Culture Ltd. (Ljubljana, Peace Institute, 2006) and The Culture of Danaian Gifts (Ljubljana, Sophia, 2009).

E-mail: maja.breznik@guest.arnes.si

VLADIMIR DAVČEV, Ph.D., is Professor of Philosophy at the University of Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Skopje. In the years 2003 and 2004 he was the president of the Philosophical Society of Macedonia. He is the chief editor of the Annual of the Faculty of Philosophy for the period between 2008 and 2011. He was member of the counselling board for the project “The Other in Teaching Programs of Higher Education”. He is author of more than 40 published works and editor of the publication Researching the Otherness – Aspects of Otherness Seen from the Perspectives of Specified Disciplines in Higher Education. His research specialities include philosophy of mid and philosophy of technology.

E-mail: valdopeper@gmail.com

MILENA DRAGIĆEVIĆ ŠEŠIĆ, PhD, former President of University of Arts, Belgrade, Head of UNESCO Chair in Cultural Policy & Management (Interculturalism & Mediation in the Balkans). Member of the Boards: European Diploma in Cultural Project Management (Foundation Marcel Hicter, Bruxelles); Cultural Policy Research Award (ECF, Amsterdam). Author and co-author of 15 books (Art management in turbulent times: adaptable quality management; Culture: management, animation, marketing; Intercultural mediation in the Balkans; Neofolk culture; Art and alternative; Urban spectacle; Horizons of reading...) Translated in 16 languages.
E-mail: msecic@gmail.com

JASMINA GAVRANKAPETANOVIĆ REDŽIĆ, MA in Fine Arts, Okinawa Prefectural University of Arts, Japan; MA in Cultural Projects for Development, University of Turin, Italy. Currently working as Senior TA at the Academy of Fine Arts, University of Sarajevo, Jasmina is enrolled in the PhD Programme – Theory of Arts and Media, University of Arts, Belgrade.
E-mail: gavranjasmina@bih.net.ba

HANNES HOFBAUER studied economic and social history in Vienna. His dissertation (1988) was devoted to recovery of the Austrian economy after World War I and II. Since then he has been working as a journalist, covering foreign policy, with a special focus on Eastern and South Eastern Europe. Since 1990 Hofbauer is programme director of the Promedia edition house, Vienna. He is author of various books and articles on Eastern Europe, focusing the changing position of the region and the states in the world economy on the one hand, including external influences and domestic changes on regional self-understanding on the other hand.
E-mail: hofbauer@mediashop.at

JASMINA HUSANOVIĆ received a PhD from the Department of International Politics, University of Wales, Aberystwyth, UK. She is a cultural and political theorist and an Associate Professor in Cultural Studies at the Faculty of Philosophy, University of Tuzla, B&H. She has published in Feminist Theory, Treca, Forum Bosnae, International Feminist Journal of Politics, International Journal of Human Rights, Millennium, etc. Her last book is Between Trauma, Imagination and Hope: Critical essays on cultural production and emancipatory politics (Belgrade, 2010).
E-mail: jasminamak@gmail.com

SVETLANA JOVIČIĆ

ANDREA KOMLOSY studied history and political science in Vienna. Her dissertation (1984) was devoted to the economic and social history of a Lower Austria Region, the Waldviertel, analyzing the reason for its peripheralization. Komlosys habilitation (2001) dealt with migration and single market formation in the Habsburg Monarchy, looking at internal borders, which during the 18th and 19th centuries were abolished for the transport of goods, but established to control the mobility of people. Komlosy is professor at the Institute for Economic and Social History, University of Vienna. She has published on problems of uneven development on a regional, a European and a global scale.

E-mail: andrea.komlosy@univie.ac.at

MARIJANA LUBINA has graduated in Art history and Philosophy at the University of Zagreb, continuing with post-academic programme in interdisciplinary doctoral studies in Theory of Arts and Media at the University of Arts in Belgrade. She works at the Gallery of Fine Arts in Split.

E-mail: marijanalubina@yahoo.com

VLADIMIR MILADINOVIĆ, MA in Arts, PhD student at the University of Arts in Belgrade, lives and works in Belgrade as a free-lance artist. He works in the field of visual art and theory of arts and media. He participates in the art project “Working Group Four Faces of Omarska”.

E-mail: hcs02@yahoo.com

ALDO MILOHNIĆ, MA in sociology of culture, is a researcher at the Peace Institute Ljubljana – Institute for Contemporary Social and Political Studies where he works on research projects in the fields of sociology of culture and cultural policy. He is editor of the Politike book series, author and co-author of several books (most recently Theories of Contemporary Theatre and Performance) and co-editor of numerous special issues of cultural journals.

E-mail: aldo.milohnic@mirovni-institut.si

DUŠAN NEŠKOVIĆ, MA in Wall Painting (Faculty of Applied Arts in Belgrade), is currently a PhD candidate for Art and Media Theory (University of Arts in Belgrade). He works as free artist and teacher of art skills, such as drawing and painting, on Pedagogical College in Šabac. He was awarded by a special recognition for Most Awarded Artist in Šabac in 2006 by the public institution for culture “Peoples Museum of Šabac”.

E-mail: dusan.neskovic@yahoo.com

BRANKICA PETKOVIĆ, MA in sociology of culture, is a researcher and project manager at the Peace Institute Ljubljana – Institute for Contemporary Social and Political Studies. She is also editor of the Media Watch book series and Media Watch journal. Her work is focused on research, advocacy and publishing activities in the field of media accountability, communication rights of citizens and minority groups, and media pluralism. She is author of number of articles and reports, and co-author of books on the above mentioned topics.

E-mail: brankica.petkovic@mirovni-institut.si

JAKA PRIMORAC, PhD in Sociology (University of Zagreb), is employed at the Institute for International Relations, Zagreb (Department for Culture and Communication) as a Research Fellow currently working on the research project Global Influences and the Local Cultural Changes. She is the winner of the Cultural Policy Research Award for the year 2005, awarded by the European Cultural Foundation (ECF) and Riksbankens Jubileumsfond.

E-mail: jaka@irmo.hr

SVETLANA RACANOVIĆ is art historian, art critic and independent art curator from Montenegro. She is author and curator of numerous exhibitions on Montenegrin contemporary art scene in Montenegro and abroad and author of the book Montenegrin Contemporary Art Scene around 2000 – Delinquent Coalition of Theory and Practice. She is PhD candidate at the University of Belgrade.

E-mail: impulsivo68@t-com.me; impulsivo68@gmail.com

NADA ŠVOB-ĐOKIĆ is Scientific Adviser (Full Professor) in the Culture and Communications Department, Institute for International Relations, Zagreb. She has led numerous research projects including the international project on Redefining Cultural Identities (2000-2007), initially supported by the EU. Dr. Švob-Đokić has published over 300 articles, studies, monographs, research reports and books in Croatian, English, French and other languages.

E-mail address: nada@irmo.hr